If MCAD is awarded a contract for Polk County conflict cases, would you want to participate in that work as well?                      Yes                      No

I am familiar with and agree to abide by the Oregon State Bar Performance Standards for Criminal cases.

I understand and agree that with the beginning of the new State of Oregon contract period, starting January 1, 2012, I will have no legal right to a new contract with MCAD. Nor will I have any legal right to participate in any legal indigent defense work awarded to MCAD by the State of Oregon Public Defense Services Commission after January 1, 2012 unless this application is first accepted and approved by MCAD’s Board of Directors, and I thereafter enter into a new contract with MCAD covering the new contract period.
